The City of Archer does not represent, warrant, or guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the information provided through this website. Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time it is posted, but due to the changing nature of the information the accuracy cannot be guaranteed. Website visitors are encouraged to consult with the City of Archer officials and employees to confirm the accuracy, reliability and timeliness of the information posted on the website. The City of Archer specifically disclaims any and all liability for any claims or damages that may result from providing the website or the information it contains, including any websites maintained by third parties and linked to the City of Archer website.

The City of Archer does not endorse any of the products, vendors, consultants or documentation referenced in this website. Any mention of vendors, products, or services is for informational purposes only.

Privacy Policy

The privacy of the City of Archer's website visitors is important to the City. The City will use the utmost discretion with the use of personal information obtained through the website. If a user sends the City an electronic mail message that contains personally identifying information, the City will use this personal information to respond to a request. While the City will make every effort to protect your personal information, sharing any information via the Internet is not without risk and you are encouraged to use discretion when sharing personal information electronically. As a governmental agency, the City of Archer is governed by open records laws. Your e-mail address and other identifying information may be subject to these open records laws, if requested. In addition, certain e-mail may constitute a public record and is subject to disclosure under state law. Otherwise, we do not share personal identifying information with any third party without your permission.

E-mail

Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public records. If you do not want your e-mail address released in response to a public-records request, do not send electronic mail to this entity. Instead, contact this office by phone (352) 495-2880 or in writing to:

City of Archer
P.O. Box 39
Archer, Florida 32618

(Please Note: written requests are deemed public record, if you do not wish for any written information to be disclosed in a public records request, please contact the City by telephone.)

E-mail sent to the City or forms filled out by you that contain personal identifying information may be used by the City to respond to your inquiry or request. Personal information that you supply may be used in processing your request, and may be collected for inclusion in databases or directories to be used for internal purposes only, or for any purposes you authorize. Personal information will not be sold, rented, or voluntarily supplied to any agency, commercial or private, unless required by law.

Florida Sunshine Law

Florida Statute 119 declares that it is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records shall be open for personal inspection by any person, and thus, information collected by the City of Archer's website may be subject to examination and inspection upon request unless specifically exempted by Florida Statutes.

City of Archer Code of Ordinances Disclaimer

For the public's convenience, the City website includes an electronic version of the Code of ordinances of the City of Archer. The on-line code is not intended to replace the current printed version of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Archer. While every attempt is made to keep the online version of the code current, the City Commission periodically passes ordinances that supersede or modify the ordinances included in the online version. This site is intended for general reference only and should not be used in the preparation of official legal documents. Anyone using the online version of the Code of Ordinances is advised to contact the City Manager's Office with questions regarding the code.

Links to Other Websites

The City of Archer website contains links to external websites as a service to website users. External websites have their own privacy policy, subject to their own guidelines, and should not be viewed as a part of or bound by this City's website privacy policy. The City of Archer is not responsible for the content or the accuracy of any information posted on those linked websites. Use of information from those websites by the user is voluntary. References at those websites to any specific commercial product, process, or service by trade name, trademark, or otherwise, does not constitute or imply endorsement or recommendation by the City of Archer.
